

Buxton International Student Festival Interns 2019

Every year Buxton International Festival offers a number of Festival Intern placements to people who would like to work in the arts and events industries.

In 2019 the placements will run from 1st July – 24th July in Buxton. While the placements are unpaid we do provide simple accommodation in Buxton and £500 towards your food and travel expenses.

Being a Festival Intern can be a hugely rewarding experience that will help you on your way to a great job in the arts. Past Festival Interns have gone on to work in a variety of settings including Wembley Arena, the Lowry Theatre and Buxton International Festival! We are looking for enthusiastic, friendly, motivated people who will thrive on the long days, variety of roles and pressure of the Festival.

There are two categories of internship available:

Festival Intern:

- operating the Festival opera surtitles (some additional rehearsals from 19th June)
- page-turning
- stewarding events
- front-of-house duties
- venue set-up
- general 'running'
- admin in the Festival office
- Tech set-up for events

Literary Series Intern:

- venue set-up
- front of house duties
- liaising with authors
- author meet and greet
- general 'running'
- admin in the Festival office

You will have the chance to see as many Festival events as you can get to from world-class opera, to the best of UK chamber music to the famous faces of our book series.

Competition for these exciting and rewarding roles is strong and places are limited. If you would like to apply please send a CV and covering letter detailing which role you are applying for, and any relevant skills and experience you think you could bring to the role to lee@buxtonfestival.co.uk

Closing date – 5th April 2019
